

KEYS TO NEW HOME

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Palm Beach County recently presented Iesha and Jerrod James and their three daughters keys to their new home in Boynton Beach during a dedication ceremony. Jerrod and Iesha worked to complete the Habitat Homeownership Program that requires completing a minimum of 600 partnership hours, taking financial literacy classes, attending home maintenance workshops and saving for escrow. They invested over 1,000 partnership hours to prepare for their home purchase.

Adopt-A-Family of the Palm Beaches Housing Compliance Manager Rae Harris, who worked with the James family before they came to Habitat, spoke at the home dedication ceremony.

Clint Lowe, director of ESG Project Management, Carrier, hands over the keys to the family's new home.

Palm Beach County Housing and Economic Development Director Jonathan Brown and Jennifer C. Thomason, president & CEO, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Palm Beach County, attend the home dedication ceremony for the James family. ETHAN DANGERWING/MASTERWING CREATIVE AGENCY PHOTOS

Mike Miller, president and CEO, iThink Financial, and Jennifer C. Thomason, President & CEO, Habitat for Humanity of Palm Beach County, celebrate the new home of the James family in Boynton Beach. iTHINK Financial's iTHINK Community Foundation and its partners, Patriot Moving and Storage, Sweet Dream Makers, and Coastal Living South Florida Real Estate, surprised the family with a fully furnished home and a check to help cover any additional home expenses.