Equal Credit Opportunity Act Notice

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that monitors compliance with this law concerning this company is the Federal Trade Commission, with offices at 225 Peachtree Street, NE, Atlanta GA, 30303.

You need not disclose income from alimony, child support or separate maintenance payment if you choose not to do so. However, because we operate a Special Purpose Credit Program, we may request and require, in order to determine an applicant's eligibility for the program and the affordable mortgage amount, information regarding the applicant's marital status; alimony, child support and separate maintenance income; and the spouse's financial resources.

Accordingly, if you receive income from these sources and do not provide this information with your application, your application will be considered incomplete, and we will be unable to invite you to participate in the Habitat program.

If you are approved to move on to phase 2, we will conduct a deeper review of your ABILITY TO REPAY, including, but not limited to, an Employment Verification, Rent History, Background Check, Sex Offenders Registry check, and other non-traditional credit reviews. We will also request additional documents & examine a longer range of paystubs, bank statements and other financial documents to see your finances on a longer timeline.

If you meet the necessary credit and income requirements, you will then be interviewed by our staff, and have a home visit performed by members of our Homeowner Selection Committee where we will make a determination on your HOUSING NEED. The Board of Directors will have final approval.
